1. Welcome Message from the Chair, APMAA 2015 Conference

Welcome and Greetings from the APMAA 2015 Conference Chair

We welcome you all to the APMAA 2015 Conference! This conference will explore the challenges and successes of all academicians who specialize in management accounting and also in studying the role of management accounting for sustainable development.

The 2015 conference is devoted to the assumption that sustainability should be taking on greater importance in all segments. Discussions during plenary sessions as well as workshops and paper presentations will help to construct sustainability pathways for a better future. Following this three-day intensive conference, we will have a cultural tour so that we can experience the special environment of Bali. The combination between the interesting topics and the many beautiful places in Bali will produce an incredible and unforgettable conference.

I also want to give special thanks to all my colleagues from Trisakti University, Merdeka Malang University, Udayana University, Mercu Buana University, Warmadewa University, Hasanuddin University, the APMAA Board, and volunteers who are working so hard on this conference.

We look forward to seeing you all and, Welcome to Bali!

Sincerely,

Sekar Mayangsari

Chair, APMAA 2015 Conference

2. Call for Papers: 2015 Annual Conference

Theme: Management Accounting For Sustainable Development

October 26th – 29th, 2015

Venue: Udayana University and Warmadewa University, Bali, Indonesia

APMAA 2015 will be hosted by several Indonesian universities, with the following main hosts: Trisakti University, Jakarta; University of Merdeka, Malang; Udayana University, Bali; Warmadewa University, Bali; Hasanuddin University, Makassar; and Mercu Buana University, Jakarta.

The issue of sustainable development has become a hot topic as we witness how we impact our environment. The concept of sustainable development focuses on how development meets present and future societal needs.

When we discuss sustainable development, it means we discuss improving the standard of living by protecting human health, conserving the environment, using resources efficiently and advancing long-term economic competitiveness. All activities require the integration of environmental, economic and social priorities into policies and programs, and we see the need for action at all levels, including citizens and governments.

Thus, the 11th Asia Pacific Management Accounting Association (APMAA) Conference is dedicated to increase the role of management accounting for sustainable development.

The theme of APMAA 2015 Conference is Management Accounting for Sustainable Development. The conference seeks, especially, papers that address the complex challenges of sustainable development at local, regional and global levels. We seek participation from those involved in research, policy, practice and business across international sustainable development sectors. The main aim of the conference is to share and identify a practical, evidence-based solution on sustainable development particularly increasing the role of accountant in this area.

We hope the conference can mobilize the expertise of the scientific and technical communities in academia, civil society and the private sector during this conference.

We welcome paper submissions in any areas of management accounting. Let us discuss management accounting issues for our better future while enjoying the beauty of Bali Island. To all 2015 APMAA participants from all around the world, we are looking forward to warmly welcoming you to Bali Island, Indonesia, on October 26th – 29th, 2015.

The general theme for this conference is “Management Accounting for Sustainable Development.” However, manuscripts may encompass any topical area of management accounting and they can be theoretical, teaching-based or practice-oriented. Papers are welcomed in all of the following areas:

- Management Accounting and Control
- Management Accounting for Multinational Enterprises
- Management Accounting for State-owned Companies and Non-profit Organizations
- Management Accounting and Organizational Culture
- Financial Reporting
- Sustainability Reporting
- Integrated Reporting
- Shariah Accounting
- Internal control and Accountability: Professional and Business Ethics
- Corporate Governance
- Risk Management
- Intellectual Capital and Knowledge Management
- Social and Environmental Accounting
- Methodological and Theoretical Issues in Management Accounting
- Management Accounting Education
- Management Accounting History

It should be noted:

- Papers published elsewhere are not eligible for submission. Preference will be given to recent papers that have not previously been presented at major conferences.
- Papers will be double-blind reviewed. Author(s) of accepted papers must register for the conference. At least one of the main authors is required to register for the conference by 1 October 2015 and to present the work at the corresponding session.

3. Call for Papers: 2015 Doctoral Colloquium

A Doctoral Colloquium will be held in conjunction with the APMAA 2015 Annual Conference. Doctoral students and candidates are hereby invited to present and discuss their preliminary results or work-in-progress. The discussants comprise a group of international Professors.

Doctoral students interested in participating in the doctoral colloquium should submit a single PDF file consisting of:

1. An introductory letter in which you indicate what you wish to obtain from the doctoral colloquium and what you will be bringing to the doctoral colloquium.
2. A one page research statement on the research you will pursue. If you are at the doctoral dissertation stage, this statement should focus on the dissertation.
3. Your CV.
4. A letter of recommendation from your primary dissertation advisor, who should state what you can contribute as well as gain from the doctoral consortium.
5. Your paper (The text should be about 4,000-8,000 words).

The main objective of the APMAA 2015 Doctoral Colloquium is to offer an opportunity to PhD students to receive high-quality feedback from external reviewers and to directly interact with peers, exchange ideas, discuss concepts, and establish (in) formal cooperation with various research groups. Doctoral students and candidates at all stages are welcome to submit a thesis-position paper, but preference will be given to students in the earlier stages of their Doctoral work. Participants will be expected to give short and informal presentations of their work during the Colloquium, to be followed by a panel-like discussion. The submitted paper should clearly state:

The original key idea/hypothesis of the thesis

The problem domain and the specific problem addressed

An overview of related work in the area of the Doctoral work

Methodological approach

Research carried out

The expected contributions (in line with the field of study)

Paper Submission:

Full papers must be submitted by July 15, 2015. To submit a paper, please go to the CMT Conference Submission Site for "2015 Annual Conference, Asia-Pacific Management Accounting Association" at

<https://cmt.research.microsoft.com/APMAA2015/>

Since this is expected to be a work conducted by the PhD students, we require that:

The first author is a Doctoral student who is mainly responsible for conducting the research on the respective topic.

Names of the authors are preceded by: Student: and where applicable, supervisor.

The colloquium chairs will arrange the selection of the accepted papers using a peer review process. The accepted papers will be published in the Doctoral Colloquium proceedings. At least one of the authors must register (pay the participation fee) for the conference before the deadline of conference registration (on September 25, 2015), and attend and present the paper in the conference. Otherwise, the paper will not be included in the conference program and proceedings. Paper presented at the conference will be published in the USB proceedings of the conference.
