

Professor Roger Willett

Faculty of Business, Commerce Building, School of Accounting & Corporate Governance, University of Tasmania

Education Background

- BA in Economics from the University of East Anglia and a PhD from Aberdeen, in the UK.

Working Experience

- worked in the UK as a Chartered Accountant with Coopers & Lybrand, Birmingham,
- first academic appointment at the University of Aberdeen in Scotland.
- employed in the University of Wales, The Australian National University, the University of Otago, New Zealand and Queensland University of Technology in Brisbane.

Teaching Interest

- computational modelling and postgraduate teaching

Research Interests

- applying a scientific approach to economic analysis using accounting data
- economic modeling,
- accounting measurement;
- the statistical analysis of accounting numbers and
- International accounting.
- Has published articles and books on statistical aspects of accounting measurement, international accounting, management accounting and auditing.